

Berkeley Heights Community Watch
Shining a Light on Local Government

www.bhcvw.io

The BOE Majority Is Desperate: Rewriting Election Policies and Applying Double Standards

More Conflicts of Interest, More Hypocrisy and More Cash for Giacobbe

At the last BOE meeting during New Business, Dr. Foregger began to make a motion, saying, "I move to continue indemnification of Sai Akiri..."Read More

Will the Berkeley Heights BOE Majority Exploit an Unlawful Ordinance to Block a Lawful Election Result?

Natasha Joly writes to the Town Council on Concerns Regarding Potential Election Interference on the part of the Berkeley Heights BOE Majority...Read More

Update to the 11th Hour Berkeley Heights BOE Majority Decision to Change Election Policies

More Question and Concerns on the BOE's 11th Hour Changes to Election Policy Arise Soon after BOE Candidate Natasha Joly emailed the Town Council...Read More

A Strange Mess Of "Cool Ideas" Impacting Learning

Setting Up For Failure

How Many Weird Experiments Need To Go Wrong Before the Berkeley Heights School District Corrects Its Approach to Teaching Our Kids? ...Read More

NJ Education Report Publishes Another BHCW Contribution

MIGUEIS: Did Our Superintendent Violate Nepotism Rules? We'd Like An Answer.

It has been over two years since a family member in Berkeley Heights submitted an ethics complaint alleging the Superintendent of Berkeley Heights, Dr. Melissa Varley, violated ethical standards by hiring her family member...Read More

BHEA Holds the District Administration to Task

The BHEA would like the opportunity to work with you to resc an hiring people beyond their years of experience, thus surpass many years. Though this approach may allow the District to fi l of unnecessary discord and disillusionment among those who Heights students' needs. Furthermore, the BHEA is noticing th r employees and current newly hired staff alike. This is a real ees' experience and education provide evidence of their value.

s, cannot be understated nor should it be undervalued, which is in this type of hiring practice. This hiring practice enables staf chieve higher earnings than those who have dedicated themsel urrent staff have worked tirelessly throughout the pandemic an and support to Berkeley Heights students as well as their fami

in the recent hiring practices both troublesome and dishearten

y salary or benefit away from our peers. The staff in our distric both professionally and personally, as we navigated the COVID regulations and mandates. We are proud to share that we work icts a positive experience for our newest colleagues. Our goal

Letter From the Berkeley Heights Education Association To Dr. Varley and the BOE

Another Factor Impacting the BHPSNJ Teacher Retention Issues Under Dr. Varley...Read More

BOE Candidate Comments on Agenda Items during 09/14/2023 Meeting

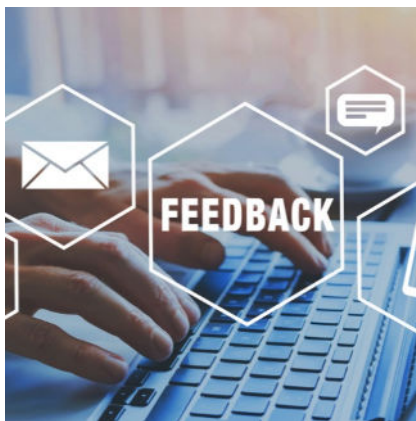

Berkeley Heights Community Watch
Shining a Light on Local Government

09/14/2023 BOE Meeting: Candidate Comments on Agenda Items

BOE Candidates Natasha Joly and Sai Akiri

Feedback on "Tyranny of the Minority" Series

Feedback From A Subscriber on "The Tyranny of the Minority" Series

Normally we do not allow anonymous articles but I received feedback from a subscriber that I appreciated for several reasons...Read More

Notes

Westminster Subdivision Voted Down

Westminster: The Other Side of the Discussion

