Class Sizes, Administrators and Bureaucratic Arrogance

How Concerns over Present and Future Class Sizes & Increased Hiring of Administrators Turned into A Lesson On Parental Belittlement

My first inklings of something feels off this school year began in August. When my first two children began school in our district, I had felt a sense of ease and knew my children were supported in the classroom. Class sizes were smaller and there was much more teacher support in the classroom...Read More

The New Board Will Have Work To Do in 2024 - Will The Current Board Get Out of Their Way?

What The New Berkeley Heights BOE Must Do In The First Three Months of 2024 To Rebuild Our District

While the BOE election was uncontested, the message was clear- the community wants things to change. While thousands were likely spent on the Town Council Election (something we will write about), it would be a surprise if the BOE candidates who garnered an overwhelming vote count given the election cycle even spent $300 combined. ...Read More

Maciejewski and Mondragon Concede But Promise to Hold the New Council Accountable

Congratulations to Illis and Machado on a Clean Campaign and Election Victory

As the outcomes of the Berkeley Heights Township Council election are now solidified, we, the 'Stop The Overdevelopment in Berkeley Heights' team led by Steve Mondragon and Edmund Tom Maciejewski, take a moment to commend both the process and the participants. Our congratulations go out to Margaret Illis and Bill Machado for their electoral victory, and for their role in a campaign season that was marked by its civility and dedication to the issues at hand—a welcome

Glimmer of Hope After the Election

A Small Step Forward

For the first time in a long time I am feeling hopeful.

In my 15+ years as a BH resident, I was happy to experience the most civilized campaign season I can remember. There was no public mud-slinging, bashing, or trash-talking of the opposing candidates....Read More
