

Council Approves Land Use Ordinance During Lame Duck Session

A Key Moment During the 12/19/2023 Berkeley Heights Town Council Meeting

The annoying and potentially dangerous “don’t get in the way of progress argument” reveals itself yet again...Read More

Six Days Before Christmas: The 12/19/2023 Town Council Meeting & Municipal Land Use Ordinance

On December 19, 2023, the Berkeley Heights town council unanimously voted on the final adoption of the Municipal Land Use ordinance....Read More

The Municipal Land Use Ordinance- Why Now And In This Manner?

We are SIX days from Christmas and in a lame-duck session.

I have been writing to council members and the mayor since September 2023 on the sign ordinance. Natasha Joly also wrote to the council...Read More

Superintendent Continues to Fumble on Legality of Survey

More Questions Remain on the BHPSNJ Improper Transportation Survey

At the last meeting, Mr.

Juskiewicz said there was no board correspondence since the previous meeting. I pointed out the exchange regarding the transportation survey. He apologized for the oversight. I wanted to share this exchange as I think it highlights the administration's lack of attention to detail when it comes to collecting data from our kids and the inability of the administration to acknowledge mistakes....Read More

Berkeley Heights School District Continues to Violate OPRA Law

Ho, Ho, Ho: Laughing All the Way

In short, residents are at the mercy of the Custodian of Records and/or the Business Administrator, and they have little recourse with the Government Records Council, despite that agency's responsibility to uphold the public's right to access of documents....Read More

Busy Week For New Jersey

What's Important to Know About NJ This Week -

Bill Reforming Affordable Housing in NJ Introduced

12/23/2023

OPRA and OPMA Protected....For Now, Deeper Dive into Efforts on Reforming Affordable Housing, Push Back on Legislation Removing Teacher Evaluations, Bill Holding Contractors Accountable Moves Forward, New Rules Requires Home Sellers to Disclose Flood History...Read More

Yesterday new Affordable Housing Legislation was introduced into the State Legislature. Supporters indicate that this legislation would replace COAH and establish a more organized pathway for municipalities to meet affordable housing obligations....Read More

Notes from the Week

Familiar Face Doing A Familiar Dance in a Different District

CMS Ranked 7th Worst School For Bullying in NJ

Township Attorney Comes Through During Council Meeting

