Ms. Penna's Track Record Matters

Angela Penna is Not An Option for Board President

I do not typically share my opinions publicly, but I am shocked and amazed that Ms. Penna is even being considered for President. How is anyone following our District even considering her as an option?

I think it is essential to review her History on the Board....Read More

A Short History Explaining Why The Berkeley Heights BOE Needs So Much Repair

The current Berkeley Heights Board of Education didn't magically arrive where they are now. There have been a series of events and actions that have led to the situation that exists today, and while one could argue for going back decades, to this author a majority of influences began with the early extension of Dr. Varley's contract....Read More
